To Whom it may concern:

It has been wonderful to be on the Do Not Call List. For the past 20 years we have paid additional for an unlisted number and even that did not protect us from annoying telemarketing calls. Since enactment of the "Do Not Call" list we are no longer bothered by unsolicited nuisance calls during our leisure, mealtimes and otherwise. As an important protection of our privacy, our family heartily supports any legislation to protect this valuable service.

Sincerely,
Mary D. Lynam
